WORKING SHEET / PART 01

Who Pays This Bill?

Find the payment route.

Use this sheet to collect answers, not to guess what you owe. Keep statements and policy or plan documents with it. Print and write, or type locally before printing. Entries are not saved or sent.

Fill this HTML worksheet in your browser, then print if useful. Entries stay on this page; closing or refreshing it clears them. The PDF is a blank writing sheet, not a fillable form.

Start with the reference details

Crash date

Claim / reference number

Medical bills

Will you bill insurance or defer payment, and what will I owe?

Health plan / MedPay; lien provider terms, including what is owed without a recovery

Vehicle repairs

What coverage, deductible and limits apply to this repair?

Insurer, policy / claim reference, repair estimate and answers

Settlement accounting

Can I see the itemized deductions and estimated amount payable to me?

Final bills, provider liens and other repayment claims to verify; count each obligation once

Record the person, date and source document with each answer. Request a written explanation of a disputed decision.

Coverage, billing order and repayment depend on the applicable policy, plan, agreement and law. A lien arrangement is not insurance.

WORKING SHEET / PART 02

Keep the numbers in one place.

Four bills, the amounts on the statements, and the next answer to get.

Bill record

Provider / bill	Amount billed	Insurer paid	Balance to verify

Next step / person to contact / follow-up date

Copy amounts from statements. A listed balance is not necessarily the amount you owe.

Ask about adjustments, missing credits and duplicate entries. This sheet does not calculate a final payoff.

Keep appeal and legal deadlines separate from a callback date. This worksheet does not determine what you owe.
